"...Trigiani focuses on love, friendship and family, the kind you're born into and the kind you create when your own family isn't available. As we learn from her story, we're responsible for our creating our own happiness." Richmond Times-Dispatch

At this session of our
Book Club, we will discuss
The Shoemaker's Wife
By Adriana Trigiani

Enza and Ciro meet as teenagers in their Italian homeland. This novel follows the star-crossed couple through their immigration experience and the epic of love and family, war and loss, risk and destiny they pursued to claim a piece of the American dream.

Discussion leader: Amy Curran Baker, author of Now What? A Guide to Recovery After Mastectomy.
